

ESCP Business School

Tuition Fee Deposit Refund Policy

Document title: Tuition Fee Deposit Refund Policy
Owner: Head of Admissions, Marketing & Communications
Approving body: Academic Quality and Standards Committee	Date of approval: March 2021
Version: 1.0	Next review date: August 2021
Supersedes: N/A	Previous review dates: N/A
Public use: Yes	Staff use: Yes	Student use: No

a) Introduction:

The deposit is non-refundable in most cases (see exceptions below). The deposit refund requests will be processed by the Admissions team and the Programme Director prior to enrolment. Any requests for refunds should be emailed to the Admissions team at masterlondonadmissions@escp.eu (full-time MSc programme applicants) or ukexeced@escp.eu (Executive Master programme applicants). In line with the UK Money Laundering Regulations, the deposit will be refunded to the bank account of the person or organisation who initially paid the deposit, or credited back to the credit card used for the original payment.

We cannot refund the deposit to the applicant's account if a third party has paid the deposit on the applicant's behalf. Authorisation from the original payer should be obtained before a refund can be considered.

Evidence of payment such as a receipt or a bank statement showing payment from that account must be provided. We will need the bank's SWIFT or BIC code. Failure to do so will delay the refund or prevent it altogether. Refunds will be paid in UK Sterling as per the exchange rates on the day of the refund.

No refunds will be made after the programme commencement date. Should any applicant be found to use fraudulent documents at the time of application or at the time of applying for entry clearance, no refund will be due.

b) Refund of deposit:

1. Applicant's right to cancel: The applicants can request a refund of tuition fee deposit within the 14 days cooling off period without giving us any reason.
2. Refund of tuition fee deposit: Tuition fee deposits are refunded in full in the following circumstances:
 - i. Refunds will be made to students who have been refused a student visa/standard visitor visa due to the mistake from the side of the Home Office. To qualify for a refund, the visa application should be:
 - genuine and meet all relevant UKVI requirements.
 - timely – students have applied for their visa at least 21 working days before the programme commencement date
 - refusal is not due to a fraudulent application
 - provides proof of the official visa refusal issued by UKVI.
 - ii. Exceptional circumstances: Decisions regarding exceptional circumstance refunds are at the discretion of the Programme Director. Refund requests on a basis of exceptional circumstances should be submitted as soon as the incident occurs, but not later than 2 months after the incident. Exceptional circumstances may include:
 - serious illness or injury to one's own self or close family member
 - death of close family member (for example partner, parent, primary carer, child)
 - medical emergency or requirement of long term medical care for the applicant or close family member (such as partner, parent, primary carer, child)
 - impact of natural disaster or civil disruption

- significant change in financial circumstances.
- iii. School cancels a programme and unable to provide the academic programme originally applied for.
- iv. If the applicant fails to meet the academic conditions of their offer, including any English language requirements, and they provide appropriate validating evidence. If the applicant made no attempt to meet the conditions of the offer, no refund will be given.